TESTIMONIALS.
From Mr. JOHN J. MAHON, Capilla del Señor, June 29, 1881.—The dip which you sent me I used according to directions, and I can assure you that it gave the desired result. During four years of practical experience of curing scab in sheep, I have seen many specifics used, and I consider Gilliard's the only one that gives complete satisfaction. It improves the quality and promotes the growth of the wool. For efficiency, economy and facility of application, I prefer it to any dip I have used.
From Mr. JAMES M. THOMAS, Estancia Santa Ines, Monte, June 29, 1881.—Having given a good trial to Gilliard's Dip, I have much pleasure in bearing my testimony to its valuable quality as a Sheep Dip. It destroys all insect life with which sheep are infected, mixes readily in cold water, does not injure the hands, and softens all hard parts. I shall strongly recommend it whenever an opportunity offers. As regards the cheapness, it should command a good sale.
By using GILLARD'S SHEEP DIP the outlay will be repaid One Hundred-fold by the Improved Condition of the Sheep, and the increased Weight and Quality of the Wool. All Sheep owners should therefore try the experiment, if only on a small Flock.
NOTE—A sample drum will be supplied gratis to any Estanciero who is willing to give the Dip a fair trial and report on same

ABOLITION OF FORCED CURRENCY.

If projects can effect the conversion of our paper money; if the combined efforts of our National and Provincial Governments, our Congress and our Provincial Bank can bring the country back to specie payments, then the projected law despatched by the Committee and which we give hereunder is the essence of all those efforts and destined to achieve so honorable a purpose.

The opposition of the Bank and the Provincial Government to the first proposal of Minister Romero was, after all, not without its good; it showed clearly that the Bank had its rights and the Directors knew well how to defend them; it showed more, that great and powerful as Government influence is in this, as in other countries, it was unable to force upon the Bank an arrangement which the Directors opposed.

By the law hereunder the Bank will receive 5 per cent bonds instead of 4 per cent, as originally proposed, and the Bank, instead of 8 months, has now two years to convert all its paper.

If for our non-financial readers this subject carries but little interest, we may remind them that, indirectly, we are all affected by the proposed measure, whilst the honor of the country with the foreign creditor is redeemed, the enormous prices charged for years back on articles of consumption will be reduced 20 and 30 per cent; and, if on our products there is an equal fall, let it always be remembered that the fictitious high prices of past years will be more than recouped by increased production of good seasons.

For those who follow the articles of the new law, that which refers to the withdrawal of 8 millions of notes from our circulation may create some alarm, as the signal of an impending tightness in our money market, but we share no apprehension in this regard, since the market is over supplied with paper money, as is proved by the fact that 40 millions were brought on the liquidator's counter in an hour, to put out on gold that lies dead in the Bank vaults, useless to trade and commerce, and but the mere medium of a baseless business which, the truth be told, has been the chief business in this market for the past years.

All the millions of paper money idly used in gold speculations may, with perfect safety, be withdrawn from this market, since gold speculation is no more. Whatever paper money is withdrawn from circulation is replaced by gold, and not gold for mere hypothecation, but gold for trade, gold for wool, and gold for land.

With this new law in force all National securities on the first of the new year will be gold, and our friends in Europe who trusted to the honor of the country will find that their trust was not misplaced, and that if the country did not sooner return to specie payments, it was due to errors and interests of which the present men in power are innocent—

To the Honble. Chamber of Deputies.

Your Finance Committee have the honour to send you a substitute for their former report on the payment of the debt due to the Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres and definite amortization of the 10,000,000 hard dollars emitted for account of the Nation—which was, by resolution of the House, sent back to Committee.

The informing member will give you the reasons for this report, and we trust it will secure your approbation.

Victorino de la Plaza—Pedro Lucas Funes—Absolom Rojas—Saturnino Unzue—Jose M. Astigueta.

PROJECT OF LAW.

The Senate and Chamber &c.—

Art. 1—The Executive shall emit up to 16,000,000 Hard Dollars in Bonds bearing 5 per cent interest and 1 per cent accumulative amortization by drawing at par, quarterly in gold.

Art. 2. These Bonds shall be used to pay the amounts due by the Government to the Provinciai Bank of Buenos Aires, and for the definite amortization of the 10,000,000 emitted for account of the Nation, after the balance now outstanding is ascertained.

Art. 3. The Executive is hereby authorised to arrange with the Provincial Bank as to the dates and amounts in which the amortization shall be carried out, which must be within two years, and with the intervention of those officials which the Government shall appoint.

Art. 4. When this project is declared Law the Bank shall receive in Bonds an amount equivalent to the amount due to it, and the rest in amounts equal to those of legal tender notes it may destroy.

Art. 5. During the time fixed for the amortization the Bank shall be paid 4 per cent on the amounts successively outstanding of the 10,000,000 emitted under the Law of 25th September 1876.

Art. 6. Up to December 3rd of this year, the National offices shall accept the notes guaranteed by the Nation for their written value, excepting for 50 per cent of the Customs duties, which must be paid in gold.

Art. 7. If the Bank refuse to undertake the amortization of the notes referred to in Art. 2, the Treasury shall do so, to which end the Government is hereby authorized to negotiate, at home or abroad, the Bonds which remain over after paying the debt to the Bank, in the manner prescribed in Art. 4, and to apply the proceeds to the object indicated, reporting the result to Congress, in the first half of the coming year.

Art. 8. Whether the Bank undertake the amortization or not, it shall be bound to withdraw from circulation, in the way most convenient, and within the two years fixed, all the notes which bear the guarantee stamp of the Nation, to an amount equal to its primitive emission of 12 millions.

Art. 9. The Law of 25th September 1876 is hereby rescinded.

Art. 10. Let this be communicated.

LATEST FROM MENDOZA.

Mendoza, July 20th, 1881.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Dear Sir,

A good deal still remains to be said about the 'surroundings' of Mendoza, which formed the main topic of my former epistle, but on this occasion it is my intention to touch upon other subjects, by way of a change, leaving the mention of some interesting spots in this neighbourhood to supply matter for a future letter.

The establishments in Buenos Aires which have, as I learn, counted upon receiving large supplies of this season's wines from Mendoza and San Juan, seem likely to find themselves grievously disappointed in their expectations—at all events, as regards quantity. As far as quality is concerned, it remains yet to be seen how the Hock, at present in sound condition, will be able to stand later on the necessary locomotion it will have to undergo before it can be placed at the disposal of consumers with you. I hear on all sides serious complaints, and that from the generality of 'bodegueros,' of large quantities (in many instances) one-third of the stock of wines of this season having become soured (avinagrado), reducing the quantity available for transmission to the 'litoral' very considerably; however, we are sufficiently advanced here in the 'composition of soured wines' to allow of the supposition that the principal injury will fall upon consumers on the spot, who will be reduced to the drinking of 'vinos compuestos,' prepared daily for immediate consumption of different substances or ingredients which momentarily return to the wines more or less their original flavour and strength, changing, however, the beverage from a wholesome to a most noxious one.

The cause of the bad result obtained from this year's vintage is self-evident and also very generally acknowledged.

The early severe frosts which took place at the beginning of April, induced vinegrowers to consider the proper moment for the 'nundimia' to have arrived, though fully a month in advance of the usual period being at the same time harrassed with a fear of the locusts, then threatening; so all hands set to work on this operation, in spite of the actual backward condition of the fruit. Now, as no attention whatever is paid in the selection of the grapes, at the time of collecting same, all being thrown together into the press indiscriminately, without any previous selection or revision, including even quantities of the slight shoots of the vine, with leaves both green and dry, the natural and to be expected result would have been that the great preponderance of green or half-ripe fruit has prevented the requisite fermentation of the liquid to an extent that the wine has not acquired a sufficiency of body, or concentration of the saccharine quality of the grape, to impede the almost immediate reaction of its aciduous properties. Thus for want of a sufficiency of rapid fermentation the wines, on suffering the first operation of being drawn off from one vessel to another, have soured. This is a very common occurrence in years of bad vintage both in France and Spain, but there vine-growers are more enlightened than our Mendoza friends, as they, by the addition mainly of heightened temperature and sugar, remedy the evil to a great extent, though at some cost. In the first place, however, they avoid this injury as much as is practicable, by harvesting separately the ripest of the fruit, leaving to the last moment that which had not reached a proper state of maturity, which is then passed separately, producing either an inferior quality of wine, or is turned into 'aguardiente,' and some times into vinegar, the latter only as a last resource, as thereby the casks used become inutilized for any other purpose.

However, to reach the real root of the evil, the results of which are this year being so severely felt here, we must go further back and trace it to its fundamental origin, which is equally evident and well-known, and may be said to be also generally tacitly acknowledged. The root of all this mischief is to be found in the original mode of cultivation adopted at the time of planting the vineyards, having little or nothing to do either with the condition of the soil or suitability of climate, both of which are almost throughout the entire district under cultivation, admirably adapted to the advantageous cultivation of the grape, for its manufacture into wines of good and sound quality. The original system, almost continued to this day, is the following:—A piece of ground, off which, perhaps, as many as six or eight successive crops of wheat, with, perhaps, an additional crop of late maize have been taken, is planted with vine slips, selected at hap-hazard, and without any reference to similarity in quality or in date of maturtty of the fruit, for which slips a hole is prepared of say from six to eight inches in diameter, after the land has been ploughed over with an old fashioned native plough, and closely sown with alfalfa seed.

A TRIP FROM FRAY BENTOS TO URUGUAYANA (BRAZIL)

(By one of Ours)

(Concluded)

Papa's treasure is busily engaged taking notes. Little Blush Rose looks admiringly on, and we are lost in contemplation of nature's wondrous charms. So the time passes until we arrived at Monte Caseros about noon. Here our stay was of short duration, as we started by rail for Concordia, where we arrived late and put up at a Hotel that shall ever be associated in our minds with fetid garlic and oil that never saw the olive. Next morning we visited the Railway station which is a splendid building. Here we were shown through the works by the courteous Superinteudent where everything is carried out on the most scientific principles. The prospects of this line are greatly enhanced by the imbecility of the people opposite in not carrying out the Santa Rosa extension. In the afternoon we crossed over by steam ferry to Salto, where we remained a few days. Most good things have an end, and with sorrow we must confess that the precious metal is not exempt from the common law. As a natural sequence in the small hours of the morning of the fifth day the House went into Committee to discuss the budget. After a preliminary motion by an hon.member that we do search our pockets, and we may add out of which nothing came, the business proceeded. The debate was icy, held as it was in the freezing atmosphere of facts and figures. We found a surplus of 5 pats. Now to keep up our reputation 2 of these were for the servants, thus leaving 3 pats tor a homeward journey of 200 miles. Three magnates and a guide at 7½ rls. each. First day of the Pilgrim's Progress, we set out somewhat pensive and sincerly bent on reform, intending to make Guaviu our halting place for the night. We travelled over a country full of cañadas, Stick in the mud was the order of the day, which was very fatiguing to our horses; our tempers not being inproved by the involuntary abstinence, as circumstances obliged us to dine on a galleta with a slight decoction of caña and arroyo water. Oft and anon the conversation turned on Dr Tanner.

"One touch of nature makes the whole world kin." We arrived early at the saladero which is situated on the banks of Uruguay about 12 leagues from Salto. It ranks as the second establishment of the kind in the Banda Oriental. We remained over night. We started early next morning and getting as far as the Quebracho, we looked askance at the 'pulperia' as we could not afford to be taken in, for to-day our good intention of reform is handicapped by retrenchment which means more frugal living. We came over the Gueguay district at a rattling pace until we arrived at the River which we swam just for fun and economy's sake. One of ours taking a deep interest in the deep sea fisheries. We visited our old friend, the Inn keeper. He did not know us. The unkindest cut of all. However, we invested in 8 cents worth of 'charque dulce' (we like to think of it in the superlative degree) 8 cents of galletas, and 10 cents of caña. We adjourned to the Monte had a spread and dined like Proctors; after siesta we set out again and reached the suburbs of Paysandu about sundown. We don't like city life, that is why we rusticate and put up at a country Inn. Mine host was communicative. He confidenly assuredus he had a father, and more wonderful still to relate he had a mother. Very interesting data, but our minds were occupied with the intricacies of finance, as we had gone in heavily for sardines, galletas and black strap Carlon. Before we sat down to dine we took the precaution of paying for our horses' fodder. They at least could masticate in peace. Not venturing to ask for our bill in public, one of our party went to the next room under pretence of buying a silk handkerchief, fortunately there was none with the much sought monogram, so with bated breath he asked for the account; to be brief, we still had a surplus of 12 cents. But as you see fast living has played Old Harry with our original capital of 3 dollars. In due time mine host gallantly conducted us to our sleeping apartment, a very airy, spacious, thoroughly ventilated dormitorio, well lighted on all sides, particularly so on top. In an off hand manner he excused the absence of some trifles usually associated with the Temple of Murphy, beds for iastance. We may remark that there was a fifth occupant in the person of a pugnacious looking old Rooster, perched on high and in close proximity to our saddle pillows. Thanks to architectural forethought the facilities afforded for astronomical studies were of the most ample character. We watched the planets in their course. Suddenly aerolites descend. Distance lends enchantment to the view. 'Gallo domestico muy inquieto.' To this succeeds an interval of stillness; the earth is mantled in darkness, the hour before dawn, light at last, and the old cock crows. We rose from our downy couches, made a very elaborate toilette, said farewell to Peter, promising to proclaim from the 4 points that at his house was to be found entertainment. We started to-day with a full paid up capital of 12 cents. We could hardly expect to fare sumptuously, so we boldly surrounded a milkman and spent right royally 8 cents further on. We fell in with a boy, the incorrigible boy of story; he asked an exorbitant price for a small piece of 'charqui,' we agreed to pay. He may bless his stars he had no change for a condor, so we compounded and paid away our last 4 cents. The ex-chancellor of the 'exchequer' feels it most but now all are equal, and believe us perfect equality means having nothing. We gathered the remnauts of yesterday's galletas, roasted the charqui, and had a spread at El Paso del Gato. After a hard day's galloping we arrived at the estancia Nueva Mehlem, which is within 10 leagues of Fray Bentos; this being our third day from Salto. We remained overnight and next day visited Nueva Berlin, which is modelled after its namesake. We visited several chacras in the neighbourhood, the owners of which are thriving and prosperous. We returned to the estancia, and next day set out again, going along by easy stages, which soon brought us to Fray Bentos, Home and Beauty, horses and riders sound in wind and limb. As being 'apropos,' we will quote the well-known lines—

I've sped by land and sea, and mingled with much people,
But never yet could find the spot unsunned by human kindness.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Cold and the Consolidation Bill were both in the ascendant yesterday. The general impression about the latter is that it will do. As for the former, the day was unanimously declared the most frigid of the season, but, being dry, it was agreeable for those whose occupations enabled them to 'keep moving.'

Some of our colleagues seem patriotically anxious to promote a hitch and another breeze in reference to the Chilian Boundary Treaty, and rake up the Devonshire and the Jeanne Amelie affairs, about which some claims are pending against the Argentine Government. Such trifles should be left in the background, and there is not the remotest likelihood of their being allowed to mar the happy crowning of the glorious work of Peace and Goodwill effected by Nature and the American Ministers.

People in general are beginning to think that there is something more than meets the naked eye in the renewed Latorrista scare over the water. People in particular have long thought so, 'Long threatening comes at last,' and the odds are that the Colonel will be in the Montevidean Government House before the Continental Exhibition building dons its roof. The Diario Official of Montevideo contradicts all the rumours afloat, but that paper is not inspired—at least by Latorre.

Dr Moses Oliva is likely to be the new Senator for Salta, to replace Dr Leguizamon who died last week.

There was a large attendance of the most prominent native estancieros of the country at the interment of the remains of the late Dn Pedro Conde on Tuesday. Mr Conde was the Argentine John Hannah. No man did more to improve the flocks and herds of the country. He had only a month returned from making large purchases of blood stock in Europe when Death knocked at his door. Dn Juan A, Molina and Dn Florencia Madero delivered most eloquent orations at the grave.

The 'aviso' calling for tenders to enlarge the Mad Asylum is a bad sign of the times. Never before had the Convalescencia so many inmates, and the doctors say there are as many, if not more, lunatics outside than inside it.

Telegrams from Carhue say that three detachments of troops have been sent from there to scour the Pampa and look up the marauders who lately committed such atrocities. The Pampa has been scoured so often and is still so far from being clean, that we have lost faith in the scouring-process.

The people at Bahia Blanca are subscribing to build a landing pier for passengers there. Excellent people! Passengers will bless them. Such public spirit is rather unusual in these regions, where Government is looked to for everything.

An ugly business is reported from Renca, province of San Luis, where the Juez de Paz lost his temper in a dispute with a neighbour and sent him across the Styx with 4 revolver bullets. The Justices of Peace in that quarter appear to have the bump of destruction developed to a degree calculated to make it highly uncomfortable for those living under their jurisdiction. The predecessor of the present Justice committed murder in exactly the same way not so long ago.

The 46 Welsh colonists who started last month to join their friends in Chubut, in the National gunboat Parana, are all settled down there now. Ninety more new Welsh settlers came out in the Galileo and will be sent down as soon as possible.

The Rural Society have commissioned Dn Ricardo Newton to draw up a Herd, Flock and Stud Book, in which the names, pedigrees etc. of all the blood animals in the country will be registered. This is a step in the right direction, although the Rurals took a long time to think about it, However, better late than never.

Mr Kemmis's famous stallion Phœnix is expected in the R.M.S. Tagus. He cost 1500 guineas, the highest priced horse ever imported into these countries. Las Rosas is determined to win in a canter in the horse breeding line.

The Bolivian advices to hand show that that republic is bent on continuing the war with Chile. The papers are full of gunpowder articles and the 'entusiasmo' is something sublime. All talk.

Monsignor Mattera, the Papal Delegate, has been made Archbishop of Trenopolis.

The Nihilists keep pounding away They set fire to the historic Kremlin in Moscow last month, and threaten to burn down the whole venerable city. What crimes are perpetrated in Liberty's name!

Our little colleague La Reforma of Mercedes is dead. The only wonder to us is how any camp newspaper can live a week. They all go neck and crop into politics and local feuds, and despise material interests of any kind,

The steamer Silex won't sail for the Uruguay to-day as announced, but will to-morrow, W.W.P.

The Montevidean papers report the case of a young girl, aged 23, who has been in a trance since Saturday last, when she appeared to have died, and they were about to put her into a coffin when the doctor saw she was not dead. Some mystery is suspected, why we really cannot say, as such trances are not so very unusual.

Mephistopheles is repeated to night at the Colon Theatre. Saturday will be the wind-up night, as the Company is off to Rio next week, but there is some talk of their giving four extra performances before they start.

Another. The Libertad states that the Government had telegrams yesterday announcing another raid by 'gauchos' near Bahia Blanca. We hope they wont come any nearer. Where are the troops?

The Ascuncion papers report things going on pleasantly enough in that quarter. Sugar is the topic of the hour, and a mill was inaugurated the other day with a truly prodigious hub-bub. The telephone has been started there in the Government House, and the people are in love with it. A rather stiff temporal' was experienced at Paraguari and much damage done. One man was blown off his horse, but he lives to tell the tale and how rude Boreas dealt with him. The Lottery has burst up sky-high, and the globes, chairs, tables, etc, are to be sold by auction. We do remember when this same Lottery was started in Asuncion a year ago, press and people went 'off their heads,' and declared that every man, woman boy and baby in Paraguay would make an independence out of it, and that it was the greatest sign of progress since the war. This is a positive fact. Now they have all discovered that 'ex nihilo nihil fit,' and they are all in fits of despair. Such is life.

Treasury Bills	123½
National Bonds 1863	93

This was a very busy day on 'Change; the Bolsa opened with every broker at the ring with orders to buy National Bank Shares, and we heard of large orders from Montevideo that also came up and could not be filled, owing to the market rising so fast. The report of the Finance Committee of Congress was read by all the brokers before business hours, and strange enough although all the brokers admit that this settles the question, gold rules very hard, which we attribute to the houses securing and going from gold into paper. Gold opened at 25.65 and held firm throughout, for the end of the month prices show a five cents advance, but the market is so enveloped in National Bank Shares speculation that very little attention is paid to gold. The sales of the day were 1,432,369 pats.

Cedulas show a sharp firmness since yesterday, and people who expected to find easy buying to-day were disappointed; purchases on long dates were made at par.

But National Bank Shares rule everything, and prices to-day rose to a figure that a few months ago we predicted and were then laughed at, namely 110 There was but one sale at this rate, and then prices dropped, as there is no mistaking that the stock is changing hands, but the public is now buying this stock, and the market is so hard, and speculation so strong that we think we are justified in reminding our readers that with the greatest ease the shares may be taken up to 120. We note a new class of buyers of this stock each day in the market. Many who are now buying never figure in Bolsa operations, all the Bolsa is of course making money now that the stock advances, and none sell short, the sellers being the men who bought last month at lower rates.

The sales at the ring were—
For cash 84,369 25.60-55-55-60-65
For August 6th 63,000 25.50-55-50-60

The cold to-day was felt everywhere save on 'Change, a blazing fire heated the liquidation room, but the National Bank stock speculation kept the ring far hotter than even the coal fire.

We report to-day one of the most important and successful land sales perhaps ever effected in this market. Mr Goyo Soler, the well known estanciero and Director on the Water Board, has sold 24 square leagues of land near Bahia Blanca, which 2 years or so ago he bought from the National Government at the rate of 10,000 m/c per league. The price at which he sold this land is two millions m/c., thus what cost him 240,000 m/c he sells now for the round sum of two millions. We wonder what our friends in England, who refused to buy these lands at 10,000 m/c per league, will say when they read this. Mr Soler's land business eclipses the Nat. Bank Shares.

At the Central Land Office some very important land sales about the Sauce Corto and other parts have been made. In fact at this office there is now an immense business going on, but buyers and sellers refuse to give the sales to the papers.

Industrial Exhibition Shares are in demand and at a premium, but holders refuse to sell, It promises to be a splendid business for the shareholders. The shares are $1,000 m/c each.

Gold at afterhours ruled without change, and all the int rest of the market was centred in Bank Shares, owing to 3 or 4 new buyers having entered and tried to buy cash in order to get the shares cheaper. The following were the principal sales of shares at after hours—
300 shares end month 109½
1000 do do 110
600 do do 110½
600 do do 110
500 do do 110½
1000 do do 110
400 do do 110⅝
200 do do 110⅞
800 end Sept. 107½
500 do do 108
750 do do 108½
1000 do do 108⅝

Market closed buyers at these rates and looking stronger than ever.

Cedulas also look very upward, as it was known on 'Change that one of our leading houses made a large shipment by Pacific steamer to-day from Montevideo. This confirms our previous advices, that now no more Treasury Bonds are to be had, Cedulas are going forward for sale in London.

6000 Cedulas cash at 100½, and buyers offering for large lots at par, for cash, and on time, no sellers. It is quite clear that now that Cedulas find their way to London they will follow in the quotation of Treasury bills, which are at a splendid premium on the London Stock Exchange.

The interest in everything connected with the Nat. Bank is now greater than ever. Some very responsible and representative men stated on Change, that with the privileges and Government support this bank has, and the Government determined to make this Bank the Grand Treasury of the Nation, for which it was created; there is really no reason why the shares should not be at least at as high a premium as the Italian Bank; an offer made last week of 35 per cent premium gold and refused. The London and River Plate Bank shares are at 40 premium in London, and the Nat. Bank shares of Chile are at 100 prem.

Sales of wool at the Once—
500 ar good wool at 76
1000 do do 74
1000 do do 73
500 do regular 66

Exchange was done to-day at 49½ to 49⅝, much first class paper offering at 49⅜, we hear of one house that drew £17,000 at 49⅜, and on Paris at 5.19.

The Tagus arrived at Rio on 30th, Mr Barker and wife on board, Mr and Mrs Parish and Miss Parish. The Tagus will be here on Monday, she has on board a magnificent sire horse for Mr Kemmis, that cost 1500 guineas.

A small Magdalena estancia sold by Mr Dorr, 1500 vs front by 6000, for 69,000 m/c, a great bargain.

Same auctioneer sold 3 leagues camp, close to Canepparis, for 104,000 m/c.

There was great talk on Change this afternoon about new measures to be taken by the Provincial Bank to put down the price of gold; it was discussed at the board to raise the rate of interest, limit discounts and draw exchange in paper, we think we may state that the line of action of the Bank to check gold will be simply—

LIMIT DISCOUNTS
DRAW EXCHANGE IN PAPER AT 48½

Which will be the same as gold at 25.40, and gold exchange 49½.

It appears that a very large amount of the bank's discounts last month went to take up gold, fully 60 millions currency they say, and this will now be stopped.

The Bank discounts to-day were only 2 millions.

To-day one of the best known English wools in the South was sold, a splendid lot, at 98. The owners refused an offer early in the season of 148.

The Nat. Bank discounted yesterday two millions and equalized its interest rates throughout the whole Republic at 8 per cent, which is indeed a noble measure, as it was most unjust that in Rioja the people had to pay 24 per cent on money that here is lent at 8. We compliment Dr Pacheco and the Directors on this move.

The new German Kosmos str. Menes, which left Montevideo on the 8th July, met with the English fregate Sussex (iron), 1,305 tons register on her voyage from that port to Port Stanley. The Sussex had lost her masts and was towed to Port Stanley by the Menes. Messrs Geo. Marshall & Sons, London, are owners of the Sussex, which was bound to the Pacific Coast.

Mr Campbell, of Lezama, was welcomed on 'Change; he has just returned from a useful trip to the camps, South of Olavarria, which he reports in fine condition and good sheep and cattle lands.

We hear of a purchase of 3 square leagues of land in the South by an English estanciero, but can give no details for a few days.

Mr. Casey, who has just returned from Europe, had a long interview with President Roca last night; he is of opinion that in less than two years all available and cheap estancia lands offering in the Plate will be bought up by English capital. But the people at home know so monstrously little about this country!

The Montevidean Custom House receipts for last month were 325,000, which, we note is ahead of the Callao Custom House that only gave in the month 223,228. Speculation in Montevidean Stocks has much calmed down, and we advise our friends, the brokers down there, if they want to start their stocks to get them quoted on the Bolsa here, in which case we shall require a new black board.

The following sales reported at the Plaza Once this morning:—
60 waggons with produce arrived.
The sales were—
1500 ar. wool at 68, 61
320 doz. sheepskins at 24½ rls.
Desechos at 17 rls.
100 doz. pelados at $34, 40
1500 doz. corderitos at $13
480 cow hides at 165, 170, 172
83 potro hides at 34, 32
Potrancas at 17, 16
75 ar. hair at 140, 135
Wheat, 350 fan., Salado, at 180, 170
60 fan., Costa, 195
Maize, 530 fan. morocho and yellow in grain at 48, 47, and 43, 44
Flour, 12,000 ar., Sta. Fe, at 34

We have received the following for publication in this column:—

B. Aires, August 3rd, 1881

To the Editor of the Standard

Dear Sir,

The Nacional of yesterday's date has published in its leading columns a very interesting article referring to the Bell Telephone Perfeccionado. Having been myself connected with the Bell Telephone Company in the U. States for four years, and having come out to the River Plate through their recommendation, I beg to inform you of some facts that I see misrepresented in the above named article.

In the first place, the Edison transmitter Telephone and Pony crown receiver were the best Telephones in use in the U. States. They were taking the lead, so the Bell Telephone Company purchased the instruments and patents for one million five hundred thousand dollars gold, and twenty per cent of the gross receipts of the Company; the Western Union Telegraph Company being the owners of the above named Telephone.

The people who lease the Bell instruments in the U. States prefer the Edison transmitter now to the Bell instruments, and the Bell Company are leasing large quantities of them at the present time.

In the second place, I never heard of a Bell Perfeccionado system until I saw the so called "Rio de la Plata Company" publish such a system.

In the 3rd place, the Bell Telephone Company has no particular system; each city company having a system of its own.

The article also refers to the Pantelephone system.

Nobody knowing this system thoroughly, I do not see what any person could say to its advantage or disadvantage. The so called Rio de la Plata Company ought to be the first to speak in favor of this system, as mine is the one which was recommended to them, and I was brought here to introduce that system; and, I think the so called Rio de la Plata Co. must be in favor of it as after I commenced operations with the Pantelephone Company they offered me 4,000 pats gold cash down and $7,000 m/c per month to return to them, and on my refusing they offered me 4,000 pats gold for the diagram of my system—which I have not seen fit to accept.

To certain individuals one system may appear complicated when to the clearer intellects it will meet with due approbation, and find superiority over others.

The system I owned last and sold has been in operation for two years and has given perfect satisfaction in all its details. In this system you have no annunciators to be burnt out by lightning, and have instantaneous communication with the Central Office at all times. The subscribers can also communicate directly without any delay whatever and at any time of the day or night at their leisure.

The passing through so many offices, as stated in the article, is mere 'revery'. I came out here to work this system for the so called Rio de la Plata Co., but after running out their main lines for them I was compelled to withdraw my services on account of ill-treatment; and I was about to return to the U. States when I was offered a position in the Pantelephone Company that had just been transformed into "Fels & Co., Sociedad Nacional del Pantelefono", where I am happy to say, I have met gentlemen with means and intelligence sufficient to carry out the business. In a short time the public will be able to judge for itself the system in question, and be convinced of its superiority, as has already been seen in the U. States.

I am, dear Sir,
Yours truly,
HENRY K. GOODWIN.

Procederemos a la venta en remate publico a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado, por orden y cuenta de los Srs Ocampo Hermanos, un selecto lote de Moruecos Negretes sangre puro.

Repetiremes aqui algunos datos que hemos publicado en anos anteriores, sobre el origen de estas cabanas por considerarlos importantes para los senores ovejeros amantes a esta belisima raza.

La cabaña que es hoy propiedad de los Srs Ocampo, fue adquirida por esos senores en el ano 1875 cuando fue vendido por nosotros en remate publico por cuenta y orden de los Srs. Eduardo Olivera y hermanos, que entonces eran considerados como los mejores criadores en la raza Negrete, habiendo fundado la cabana en el ano 1858 con animales elegidos personalmente por el Sr Don Eduardo Olivera en sus viajes por Alemania, observando el sistema mas perfecto de aparejamiento, teniendo su orijen de los rebanos de Hochitz (Austria) que como se sabe es la base del verdadero Negrete. Mas tarde en 1865 introdujo bellisimos animales de la misma raza, procedentes de la cabana Modenain, cuya majada ha sido reputada como la mas perfecta y bella, por criadores afamados.

Los rindes de los carneros padres de esta cabana son de 24 a 28 lib., siendo el de las ovejas de 14 hasta 20 lib. por vellon, rinde extraordinario y que solamente se obtiene a fuerza de escrupulosidad pue los Srs Ocampo tienen para el aparejamiento de su majada, siguiendo el mismo sistema establecido por su fundador y como es consiguiente renovando la sangre introduciendo los mejores carneros padres de la misma raza que han pedido encontrar en Alemania.

Son pues de este origin los 20 carneros que ofrecemos en venta cuya edad es de 16 a 20 meses de edad, con una de de diez meses, habiendo entre ellos animales de alta reserva.

Los carneros podran examinarse en nuestra casa Alsina 78, cinco dias antes del remate.

El Martes 16 de Agosto
A la 1 del dia

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado, procedentes de la cabaña 'Las Acacias,' estacion Olivera, sobre el Ferro-Carril del Oeste, propiedad de los Sres. Eduardo Olivera Hnos.

30 esplendidos Rambouillet Argentinos, carneros del mas puro origen, y cuya base, como todos saben, fueron animales elejidos personalmente por el Sr. Gilbert, padre del actual posedor de la cabaña en Wideville; habiendo los Sres. Olivera obtenido el actual tipo de sus carneros a fuerza de la prolija seleccion que se ha hecho en su cabaña y a la contraccion e inteligencia empleados durante un largo lapso de tiempo que llego a la altura que hoy tienen los productos de esta cabaña.

En prueba de ello tenemos a disposicion de los interesados la fotografia de los primeros carneros de aquellos padres de la cabaña Gilbert, para que puedan formar una idea exacta de la enorme diferencia que existe con los actuales carneros que hoy ofrecemos en venta.

Cuando se llega a la altura que hoy tienen los carneros de las Acacias, que puede decirse es el ideal y la perfeccion del tipo, no se necesita hacer mayores recomendaciones, tanto mas que los Sres. Estancieros que han comprado estos animales estan muy satisfechos de los resultados que han obtenido.

Podemos asegurar desde ya que esse lote que viene a venta llamara la atencion de los criadores y los interesados pueden pasar a examinarles cuatro dias antes del remate a nuestra casa Alsina 78.

LIVELY SCENE IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Mr Gibson then rose to move an amendment providing that during a statutory term an application to the Court to determine a judicial rent shall not be made except 'with the concurrence of the landlord, and if no such application be made, then at the determination of such statutory term the landlord shall be entitled to resume possession of the holding.'

Mr Playfair ruled that this amendment was out of order. The committee had already determined that a tenant should be allowed to make application from time to time, and this amendment was directly against that.

Mr Gibson (springing to his feet): I must protest against your ruling, sir, (Cries of 'Order' and cheers.)

Mr Gladstone (across the table)—What? Protest?

Mr Gibson—Yes, I protest. Renewed cries of 'Order.') I do not mean any disrespect to you, Sir, and if you persist in your ruling I will bow to it, but I insist upon submitting to you reasons why I should be permitted by you to move this amendment.

Mr Mitchell Henry rose to order, wishing to know whether it had not been repeatedly ruled that a member should not be allowed to proceed in antagonism to the ruling of the Chair.

Mr Playfair—Of course I have not given my decision as a lawyer, and I shall be glad if the right hon. gentleman can give me legal reasons that I am wrong. (Laughter and Oh, oh.)

Several Irish members at once rose to order, demanding whether the Chairman of Committee gave his decision as a lawyer or as a chairman. (Renewed laughter and cries of 'Order.'

Mr Playfair motioned to Mr Gibson to proceed.

Mr Gibson then gave his reasons why the amendment should be moved, and the Solicitor-General for England followed with reasons why it should not be moved.

Mr Gladstone—I uttered the word 'protest' across the table because the right hon. member used a word never used by members of this House to the ruling of the Chair, and I thought that was the most delicate way to call attention to what I thought might have been a slip, and to cause its withdrawal. (Hear, hear, and cheers.) In my experience of half a century I have never heard that word applied by any member of Parliament with respect to any decision of the Speaker or Chairman of Committees. (Cheers)

Mr Gibson—The right hon. gentleman has manufactured—(loud Opposition cheers)—has tried to magnify and intensify what took place. I had not the smallest desire or intention to be disrespectful in word or manner to you, Sir, and I said that I would acquiesce in any ruling you might make.

The Chairman—I regret that I can only bring the judgment derived from common sense (laughter) to the decision of this question, and not any legal knowledge. The amendment cannot be put, as it is inconsistent with the former part of the clause, and I rule accordingly. (Cheers).

Mr Macfarlane had an amendment with respect to arrears, but he agreed to withdraw it, and

Mr Gladstone said in a day or two, probably to-morrow or the day after, his right hon. friend, the Chief Secretary, would lay on the table a proposition with respect to arrears. (Hear, hear).

Mr Chaplin: Will the Prime Minister explain to the committee what these propositions are before the seventh clause is disposed of?

Mr Gladstone: Oh, no. (Laughter.)

Mr Chaplin: Well, then, we must take care to have the question discussed.

Major O'Beirne next moved an amendment providing that, in the case of an estate purchased out of the Landed Estates Court, if the rent fixed by the Court was less than the gross rental appearing in the rolls of the Estates Court, a corresponding reduction should be made in the mortgages upon the estate.

Lord Randolph Churchill challenged the Government to give an opinion on this clause, and asked why, if there was to be legalised spoliation, it should not be sent all round. As to labourers or arrears, he did not believe that the Government had any proposition. (Hear, hear, and cries of 'Order.')

Mr Gladstone: I rise to order. I wish to ask you, Sir, whether, after a member of this House has just stated, in his place, that the Government have a proposition which a right hon. friend is prepared to lay on the table of the House to-morrow or the next day, the noble lord is to be permitted to state in his place that he believes the Government have no such proposition at all—(loud Ministerial cheers)—and thus charge me directly, and my right hon. friend indirectly, with falsehood. (Renewed Ministerial cheers.)

The Chairman: If the noble lord stated that the Government had no such proposition, he was out of order. (Hear, hear.)

Lord Randolph Churchill: I stated no such thing. (Oh, oh, and Opposition cheer.) The Prime Minister, with his usual impetuosity—(laughter)—interrupted me before I had finished my setence. (Oh, oh, and laughter.) What I was going to remark was that the Government had no proposition to make on the subject of labourers or arrears which would be satisfactory to the House. (Loud laugter, Opposition cheers, and Oh, oh, from the Ministerial benches.) That closes that point. If the Prime Minister had only allowed me a moment to finish my sentence he would not have had to rise to order.

Mr Gladstone: To us on this side of the House it seemed that the noble lord had terminated his sentence. (Hear, hear.)

Earl Percy: I rise to a point of order. I wish to ask whether the Prime Minister is in order in asserting that the noble lord had concluded his sentence, and that that was the opinion of those who sat near to the Prime Minister. (Hear, hear.)

The Chairman: I have heard nothing from the Prime Minister that is out ot order. (Cheers.) I considered myself that the sentence was finished. (Cheers.)

Mr Gladstone: I speak entirely within the recollection of the House. (Cheers.) However, the noble lord has made his statement, and I shall say no more upon it. He has challenged the opinion of the Government on this amendment. Our opinion is opposed to it, because we believe it outside the range of the bill, and we mean to oppose it.

Mr Chaplin said he must adopt the unusual course of moving to report progress, so that they might discuss such subjects as leases, and arrears, and perpetuity of tenure, which the Government seemed determined not to allow them an opportunity of debating. The Prime Minister had said that it was the sacred duty of members to assist the progress of this bill, but they in the Opposition had also a sacred duty—to vindicate the rights of property which at that moment were assailed in a manner he ventured to say no statesman in the House of Commons had ever done before. (Cheers.)

Mr Gladstone could hardly admit that the hon. member was entitled to say that he took 'the unusual' course of moving to report progress, seeing that he had made a similar motion three times in the preceding week. (Laughter). He pointed out that perpetuity of tenure was involved in the principle of the clause, and could be discussed when the question was put that the clause stand part of the bill.

Sir Stafford Northcote admitted that was so, but urged that such a course would be inconvenient, as there were other matters in the clause that some who were against perpetuity of tenure might be in favour of. They wished to debate that particular question alone. He however, hoped that the motion to report progress would not be persisted in.

Lord Randolph Churchill, amid Opposition cheers and interruptions from the Liberal benches, proceeded to speak on the motion to report progress, but his remarks were for the most part inaudible. The Government had, he said, refused to give information on most important points, and was jockeying the committee. (Cries of Oh and Withdraw).

Sir George Campbell rose to order.

The Chairman said he could not rule the word out of order, but it was not desirable, as likely to lead to discussion. (Laughter).

Sir P O'Brien said motions to report progress at half past 10 o'clock on an important bill were not a creditable way for a great party to oppose a measure of this kind.

Mr C Bentinck said the Government were responsible for this interruption to progress. The Prime Minister did not know how to treat the Opposition, which was an Opposition largely composed of English gentlemen. (Oh, and loud laughter).

Mr Gladstone said the hon. member's suggestion that a minority of the Opposition could not be so styled was not very complimentary to his own party. (Laughter).

Mr Bentinck admitted that some members of the Opposition were not English gentlemen,—Oh—because they were Irish gentlemen. (Loud laughter).

Mr Chaplin said he would raise the question of perpetuity of tenure on the clause when put as amended. (Conservative cheers).

The motion to report progress was then withdrawn.

Mr Lalor moved an amendment to the effect that at the end of the statutory term the Court in fixing the rent should have regard not to the condition of the holding, but to the prices of the various kinds of farm produce, raising or lowering the rent as these had risen or fallen in the interval since the previous fixing of rent.

Mr Gladstone said the Court would of course take into consideration the prices of farm produce, but it would consider these not absolutely, but in relation to the farm, how far a certain produce was grown on the farm in question, and how far it was affected by the change in the price of that produce. But he could not accede to the principle that variation in prices was the only element of consideration for the Court in fixing the rent. (Cheers.) There were, for instance, on the one hand, the price of labour, and on the other the improvements in machinery, to be considered. (Hear, hear).

After some discussion, Mr Lalor asked leave to withdraw his amendment, but, this being refused, Mr Chaplin proposed a modification of it. This was, on a division, negatived by 250 to 146 votes, and the amendment itself was thereafter rejected.

Progress was then reported, and the House resumed.

They are strong, durable, and thoroughly adapted for all kinds of work. The tines—which are all steeled—are so fastened that they cannot get loose, and unlike Colonial-made imitations they can be readily taken out for repair.

The following are some of the most useful sizes:—
